

E-lecture “Environmental Justice and Sustainable Development

Instructor: Dr. Götz Kaufmann (Environmental Justice Institute [EJI])

Email: goetz.kaufmann@environmentaljustice.de

Course website: <http://environmentaljustice.de/EJandSD.php>

Host: Phillips Universität Marburg – Institute for Political Science

Course details and participation requirements

When: Wednesday from 4 pm to 6 pm c.t.

Where: virtual classroom [VC] (Adobe Connect) except the first session (room 00052, WR 6G)

Consultation Hours: Wednesday 6pm to 7 pm in the virtual consultation hour room

Technical requirement: laptop/PC with sufficient internet, camera, and headset w microphone

Personal requirement: sufficient command in English, active and regular participation

Studienleistung: Presentation in the VC using e-learning tools, preparing questions for discussion

Prüfungsleistung: Term paper (in German or English) of about 10 to 15 pages

Successful participants: 6 ECTS points and certificate of e-learning training by the EJI

Course topic

- Becoming proficient in using e-learning tools in the virtual classroom
- Comparing Environmental Justice and Sustainable Development
- Theories of Development
- Theories of nature-society relationship
- Theories of justice
- International Environmental Justice case studies

